Refugio Roping Ranch

Sixty +/- acres of sprawling South Texas country side that lands itself about five minutes northwest of Refugio, TX. Gentle sloping terrain made up primarily of sandy loam topsoil and native Bermuda grass pastures. Mesquites and native hardwoods are scattered throughout the ranch along with several great building sites.

The main attraction of this ranch is the professional roping arena and horse barn. The arena is made up of cedar posts and cedar stays and includes pens, chutes and a judging box. Truly, a five star roping arena!

The wooden cedar barn includes eight oversized covered horse stalls fit for the king of horses. A foreman's apartment and climate controlled tack room finish off the beautiful horse barn.

This ranch is great for the horse and roping enthusiasts!
